

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Correct. It is simply an oversight.

THE PRESIDENT: So the words "by law" should be there.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: That is correct.

THE PRESIDENT: Would you offer an amendment to that effect?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: If I may do so.

THE PRESIDENT: Amendment No. 12 would be to add the words "by law" and after the word "prescribe" on page 9, line 41. Is there any objection to considering the amendment, notwithstanding the fact it is not printed?

The Chair hears no objection.

Is it seconded?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: It has been duly seconded to add the words "by law" after the word "prescribe."

Is there any objection?

A vote Aye is a vote for the amendment, and a vote No is a vote against.

Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 95 votes in the affirmative and 1 in the negative, the motion is carried and the amendment is adopted.

Delegate Burdette.

DELEGATE BURDETTE: I must say that I am not quite sure whether there is still an opportunity for some more language clean-up. If there is, my suggestion is not an emergency, but in 4.24 in line 38, to avoid a pure rhetorical problem and to obtain clearly the meaning that Chairman Morgan desires, we should place after the "majority vote" the word "and."

THE PRESIDENT: In line 38?

DELEGATE BURDETTE: Yes. "The Board shall act by majority vote 'and' . . ."

THE PRESIDENT: Do you desire to submit such an amendment?

DELEGATE BURDETTE: I do.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any objection to considering the amendment suggested by Delegate Burdette, to add the word "and" before the word "shall" in line 38, notwithstanding the fact that it is not printed? The Chair hears none.

This will be Amendment No. 13. Add the word "and" after the comma and before the word "shall" on line 38, page 9.

Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the amendment was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion?

Are you ready for the question?

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 13. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment. A vote No is a vote against.

Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 92 votes in the affirmative and 2 in the negative, the motion is carried and the amendment is adopted.

Are there any further amendments to section 4.24?

The Chair hears none.

Are there any amendments to 4.25?

The Chair hears none.

Section 4.26: Delegate Morgan, do you desire to offer your Amendment M?

DELEGATE MORGAN: I do.

THE PRESIDENT: The pages please distribute the amendment.

This will be Amendment No. 14.

The clerk will read the amendment.

READING CLERK: Amendment No. 14 to Committee Recommendations EB-1 and EB-2 as amended by Report S&D 13, by Delegate Morgan, Chairman of the Committee on the Executive Branch:

On page 10, section 4.26: Reorganization of the Executive Branch, strike out all of lines 30, 31, 32 and down to and including the word "administration" in line 33, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "of offices, agencies, instrumentalities and principal departments, and in the assignment
